

A PERSONAL NOTE: In April I will be revising my Collectors List. Details will follow later... On Feb 14th, 1894, Jack Benny was born. He died on Dec. 27th, 1974. He brought a lot of love and laughter into everyone's hearts.

DATES AND TITLES Gerald Ruark, 3202 Busy Bee Ln, Indianapolis, Ind 46227 wants to know the correct date for the PHIL HARRIS show in which he moves into his new office in the Rexall Building. Is it 4/24/49 or 9/25/49. Gerald has a partial PHIL HARRIS log and wants a complete one... Alan Kleinberger, 147-22 76 Ave, Flushing NY 11367 wants to know correct date of QUIET PLEASE, Thing on the Fourable Floor--8/9/48 or 9/18/48. Also does anyone have a partial log for the series... Frank Nelson wrote a detailed letter to John Ed Smothers about J Benny. The last season in which no reruns were used was 1953-54. During the 1954-55 season some reruns were used because they started working on the J Benny TV show in October of 1974... The rebroadcast of all shows started in fall of 1956-middle of 1958.

old time radio posters

take your pick only 75¢, each one is a large 11 x 17, these are not drawings, these are real photo's, any collector would be proud to hang these in his den or radio room, no. 1 amos 'n' andy — (freeman gosden — charles correll), no. 2 the lone ranger — (radio's own brace beemer), no. 3 a great picture of captain midnight getting out of his plane, no. 4 radio's little orphan annie — (signed to my friend, shirley bell), everyone who sends in will also get a free lone ranger give-away.

this offer good for 30 days only. we also have lots of other old time radio stuff, write thomas riggs box 23 vauxhall, new jersey 07088.
